Ms. Alexander focuses her practice in the areas of complex litigation, product liability and personal injury defense. Her experience and training in business management enables her to provide exceptional service and counsel to her clients, both in and out of the courtroom. Ms. Alexander has successfully tried and managed numerous complex and catastrophic injury cases on behalf of leading automotive, heavy equipment and product manufacturers and insurers, including crashworthiness and rollover cases, defective door latch, airbag, parking brake system, warnings and forklift claims.

Ms. Alexander is active in numerous professional organizations, including the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance, the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel (FDCC), Product Liability Advisory Council (PLAC) and the American Bar Association, Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section (TIPS), where she is a past-chair of the Automotive Law Committee and is currently serving on the Women Trial Lawyers Task Force and the TIPS/ABOTA National Trial Academy Committee. Ms. Alexander is a frequent presenter on the topics of ethics and professionalism, leadership, diversity and inclusion in the profession and trial techniques through these organizations and others. Ms. Alexander is also a staunch advocate for the training, development and mentoring of young attorneys and participates in Law Day activities in conjunction with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, as well as outreach opportunities through the Chester County Bar Association, the FDCC and the American Bar Association.

Ms. Alexander is admitted to practice law in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and before the U.S. District Court, District of New Jersey, U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania and the U.S. District Court, Western District of Pennsylvania.
