

Robert Bragdon

Robert (Bob) Bragdon is a graduate of the University of Maine at Farmington with a B.A. degree in Geography. He has worked in various industries, including radio disc jockey, assistant cartographer, R&D technician with Polaroid Corp and coffee-service salesman and manager prior to joining the Hanover Insurance Group in Worcester, Massachusetts, in 1996. He has worked as an outside Property Adjuster in New England, Marketing Manager in NH, and as a National Catastrophe Adjuster on Hurricanes Isabel, Jeanne, Francis, Katrina, Rita, Gustav and Irene, as well as the tornadoes in Detroit in 1997. He has the AIC and PCLS designations and has earned two Presidential Service Awards at The Hanover. He is currently a Sr. Training Consultant for Property with the Claims Learning and Development team at the Hanover, where he was instrumental in developing the Property Fundamentals courses and Commercial Coverage Labs.