

Brian Philpot has more than twenty-one years of experience handling insurance claims. Brian started working for The Cincinnati Insurance Companies in 2002 after five years with American Modern Insurance Group. Brian spent thirteen years as a multi-line claims handler in the local areas around Cincinnati, Ohio. Brian is currently a Superintendent in the Property Claims department supervising property claims handling for thirteen states primarily in the northeastern United States. Brian is a 1996 graduate of Eastern Kentucky University with a Bachelor of Business Administration. Brian also has an Associates in Claims (AIC) and his Senior Claim Law Associate (SCLA) designations.