

Trevor Self
Head of Claims, Property Group and Reinsurance
Beazley Group plc.

Trevor started his career with Commercial Union in the Marine Claims Team in 1985 in London, England. He moved over to Property claims in 1999 whilst working for Sirius International in their London branch.

Trevor joined Beazley in 2006 as a Claims Manager within Property Group based in London, and became the Head of Claims for Property Group and Reinsurance in October 2011, with claims teams based in London, England, Boston and Atlanta in the US, and Singapore. He has extensive experience in the adjustment of complex property claims on a worldwide basis, and has dealt with market losses in the US from Hurricanes Katrina, Rita, Ike, Matthew and the recent storms in 2017. Trevor has significant litigation experience and has testified in both State and Federal Court on Property matters, and is well versed in depositions.

Trevor is also Chairman of the Property Insurance Claims Group at Lloyd's, and also sits as a the Property representative of the Lloyd's Market Strategic Claims Group.