

Bio for Todd Breton
Inspire Consulting Firm

Todd Breton is owner of Inspire Consulting Firm. Todd's business focuses on providing his clients with project management, new adjuster training, process improvement evaluations and quality assurance reviews.

Todd began his insurance claims career with Liberty Mutual in 1991 as a Workers Compensation adjuster. For a brief period, Todd worked for GEICO insurance handling catastrophe claims until his return to Liberty Mutual in 1995. From September 1997 through December 2004, he was a Property Team Manager in Liberty's Irving Texas operation. From January 2005 through May 2006, Todd was a litigation specialist handling first party litigation. During this time, he worked for Liberty Mutual Gulf States Alternative Dispute Resolution process which he worked closely with Kenneth Fienberg resolving Hurricane Katrina cases. During his career with Liberty Mutual he served as a Quality Assurance Team Leader and helped integrate process improvement projects.

Todd received in Bachelor of Science in Finance from the University of Houston in 1989. In July 2005, Todd graduated with his MBA in Global Management from the University of Phoenix. He is currently a doctoral candidate with the University of Phoenix. Todd also teaches undergraduate courses with the University of Phoenix – Online.