

Michele A. Chapnick is a shareholder in Gregory and Meyer, P.C. and has concentrated her practice on first party property and liability insurance coverage litigation, arson and fraud claims, complex subrogation and general civil litigation. Ms. Chapnick has represented insurers in property, general liability and professional liability coverage disputes throughout the country and has litigated and tried cases of all sizes and complexity. She authored the Michigan Chapter on the Uniform Trade Practices Act for the Defense Research Institute and regularly lectures on topics including first party claims and subrogation issues for organizations, such as the PLRB, the National Association of Subrogation Professionals and National Society of Professional Insurance Investigators.

Ms. Chapnick graduated from Northwestern University in 1990 and Loyola University Chicago School of Law in 1993. She is licensed to practice law in Michigan, Ohio and numerous Federal Courts throughout the country.