

Bio – Emily K. Dotson, Esq.

Emily is an experienced attorney practicing law in Arizona, New Mexico, and Florida with the law firm Resnick & Louis, P.C. Emily's practice is primarily focused on multi-party complex civil litigation in the areas of insurance law, personal injury litigation, construction law, construction defect, and general civil litigation. She also advises insurance companies related to a variety of insurance coverage matters as well as first-party property defense. Additionally, Emily also represents corporate clients in business transactions such as insurance procurement, real estate transactions and corporate law.