

Robert F. Duval
Senior Fire Investigator/New England Regional Director
NFPA

Robert is the Senior Fire Investigator for the NFPA (National Fire Protection Association), which is based in Quincy, Massachusetts. Robert is responsible for conducting investigations of technically significant incidents in order to gather, “Lessons learned” from each incident to apply those lessons to improving NFPA codes and standards. The investigation of these incidents includes documenting the emergency services response, the structure(s) involved as well as the events leading up to and following the incident.

As Regional Director, Robert is responsible for outreach within the New England states regarding code adoptions, and training. He also serves as a point of contact for stakeholders in the NFPA process; including the fire service, engineering and safety professionals.
