

ROD FONDA BIOGRAPHY

Rod Fonda (officially Rodney Q. Fonda) has specialized, since 1977, in all areas of maritime and transportation law, including aviation, inland, and multimodal transportation. He is presently Of Counsel with Preg O'Donnell & Gillett, an insurance litigation law firm in Seattle which also services Oregon and Alaska. Previously he was with a maritime boutique firm and an international firm with 21 offices. Rod is a graduate of Yale and the University of Michigan Law School, and is a member of the Bar of the States of Washington and New York. He has tried jury and non-jury trials in state and federal courts, including issues ranging from crewmember injuries to shipyard repairs to salvage claims to airplane crashes. Cargo claims, international and domestic, have always formed a core part of his practice, particularly cargo subrogation claims and defense of intermediaries such as freight brokers.

RFonda@pregodonnell.com