

Gregory Holt is Claims Supervisor with EMC Insurance Companies in Warwick, Rhode Island with over 20 years of industry experience. Greg began his career in 1996 as a Claim Representative with at Travelers handling first and third party Auto and GL claims with varied exposure. In 2000 he became an outside property claims adjuster for the Travelers where he handled personal and commercial lines property claims throughout the northeast region. Greg started with EMC in the winter of 2002, where he continued to handle first party personal and commercial claims. During his time with EMC Greg received a promotion to Senior Claims adjuster where he handled complex GL and Property claims. He presently supervises a staff that handles Auto, GL and Property claims while also handling complex GL, Auto and Property claims. Greg has earned his AIC designation and is presently working towards his CPCU.