

Steven LaPierre is an experienced property claims adjuster having spent over 25 years in the insurance industry. Steve began his career with Liberty Mutual Insurance Company handling first party property damage claims in Massachusetts. He spent 16 years as a commercial property claims adjuster with CNA Insurance Companies handling claims throughout New England and 8 years with Harleysville/Nationwide Insurance as a General Adjuster working primary in New England and New York. Steve recently joined Vermont Mutual Insurance Group as a Claim Examiner. Over the past 25 years Steve has handled a variety of insurance claims including commercial/residential property, inland marine, boiler & machinery, fidelity and business income. He is also experienced with mediation, appraisal, reference and litigation.