

Kathy began her insurance career in 1984 and has been with Liberty Mutual for over 30 years. She has handled all lines of business, both personal and commercial, in virtually every state. She has held various positions, including adjuster, analyst, consultant and manager.

In her current role, Kathy is responsible for overseeing the defense of breach of contract allegations in property suits against the company. She works with underwriting, defense attorneys, claims, SIU, products and marketing to assess and defend the suit. She factors in the strengths of the experts, the venue and the claims issues and considers whether there has been potential fraud/misrepresentations in either the application or the claim. In addition, she facilitates training seminars and is a mentor to others. She completed her CPCU in 2016.
