

Scott Mull is a multi-line supervisor with the Central Mutual Insurance Company and works out of their home office in Van Wert, Ohio. Scott has been with Central Insurance Company for 9 years holding previous positions of Multi-line Claims Representative, Senior Claims Representative, Property Specialist and Senior Property Specialist.

Scott is active at Central in training and development in the fields of personal and commercial lines property and casualty claims handling to include instructing CPCU and Associate of General Insurance courses as well as serving as an InVest instructor at Van Wert City Schools.

Prior to Central, Scott spent 7 years with State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company working as a field complex auto injury adjuster.

Scott graduated from University of North Carolina at Charlotte where he earned a Bachelors degree in Political Science. Scott has earned The Institutes designations of CPCU, AIC, ARe, AIM, API, AIS and has earned the Senior Claim Law Associate designation through the American Educational Institute. Scott is also certified through the IICRC in Applied Structural Drying and Water Restoration Technician. Scott is a member of the CPCU Society Grand Lakes Chapter, serves as a director of his local International Association of Insurance Professionals chapter and is a member of the Lima Adjusters Association. Scott has also been a co-presenter at the PLRB Central Regional Claims Conferences in 2013 and 2014 and PLRB Claims Conference in 2016.

Outside of insurance, Scott is active in the United Way of Van Wert County serving as board president, serves on the Van Wert City School Board, is on the Board of Trustees of Northwest State Community College, is a board member of the Van Wert Performing Arts Foundation and is a board member of Junior Achievement of Van Wert County.